

Outreach

Saturday Academies

Summer Academies

Reach Ins

Creative Connections

Blues Camp

Emerging Artists

2013 Education Programs in the ARTS

ACADEMY IN ART

ACADEMY IN DANCE

ACADEMY IN DRAMA

ACADEMY IN MUSIC

ROBOTICS CAMPS

SUMMER ACADEMIES
June — August

Acting and Auditioning Intensive

Ballet/Jazz/Modern/Hip-Hop Dance

Chamber Music Training

Computer Music Programming

Digital Filmmaking

Drawing and Painting

Guitar Intensive

Integrated Arts Production

Photography

Sculpture and Ceramics

Visit us at:
<http://outreach.arts.uci.edu>

SATURDAY ACADEMIES

Thinking about studying the arts in college? Looking for arts workshops and an inside look at the arts programs at UC Irvine's Claire Trevor School of the Arts?

Join us
Saturday Academies

Sound Design
Dance
Digital Filmmaking
Drama

Visit <http://outreach.arts.uci.edu>
Fee: $30 per week

ENROLLMENT LIMITED,
REGISTER TODAY!

CONTACT US!

artsoutreach@uci.edu <http://outreach.arts.uci.edu>

949.824.8976

Summer Academies

Enrollment doubled over previous year.

ACADEMY IN ART

ACADEMY IN DANCE

ACADEMY IN DRAMA

ACADEMY IN MUSIC

ROBOTICS CAMPS

UCIRVINE | CLAIRE TREVOR
SCHOOL of the ARTS

SUMMER EDUCATION PROGRAMS IN THE ARTS SUMMER 2013

Featuring summer arts programs for youths, pre-teens and teenagers.

ENROLLMENT LIMITED, REGISTER TODAY!

Special Discounts, Financial Assistance and Scholarships Available!

CONTACT US!

artsoutreach@uci.edu
<http://outreach.arts.uci.edu>
949.824.8976

Published: June 14, 2013 Updated: 5:15 p.m.

UCI offers summer academies for aspiring artists

Tweet Recommend You and one other recommend this. One person recommends this. Be the first of Email Share

MORE PHOTOS »

Middle and high school students, including 11-year-old Rachel Leong of Laguna Niguel, center, (blue jacket) sing Go the Distance from Disney's Hercules as instructors work with the kids on performance techniques during a Saturday morning workshop at the Claire Trevor School of the Arts at UCI Irvine.

STEVEN GEORGES, FOR THE REGISTER

By KIRAN KAZALBASH / FOR THE REGISTER

Since 2011, UC Irvine's Claire Trevor School of the Arts has offered high school students a hands-on opportunity to improve their skills in dance, drama, music and studio art through its Summer Academies. This summer will be no exception.

Megan MacDonald, director of the UCI Summer Academies, said these programs are not for the unmotivated student looking for a way to spend the summer, but instead are for emerging artists looking for a valuable learning experience.

Date: Mar 30, 2013; Section: News; Page: 5

SUMMER CLASSES

Arts academies for youths planned at UCI

UCI CLAIRE TREVOR SCHOOL OF THE ARTS

UC Irvine's Claire Trevor School of the Arts will offer summer academies in art, dance, drama and music for children and teens.

Courses are rigorous, with focused instruction in small classes. Financial assistance and discounts are available.

For more information, go to outreach.arts.uci.edu/summer-academies.

Available classes include:

Drawing and Painting: 10 a.m.-4 p.m. June 24-July 6 (no class July 4). Course fee: $1,000.

Students will learn studio-art techniques and develop a portfolio. The academy consists of daily discussion, studio time and technique. The program concludes with a small exhibition of student work. The course is designed for high school students. Materials are included in the course fee.

Photography: 10 a.m.-4 p.m. July 8-19. Course fee: $900.

Students will learn various photography techniques and develop a portfolio. The program concludes with a small exhibition of student work. The course is designed for high school students. Materials are included in the course fee.

Sculpture/Ceramics: 10 a.m.-4 p.m. July 22-Aug. 2. Course fee: $1,000.

Students will learn various sculpture and ceramic techniques and develop a portfolio. The course is designed for high school students. Materials are included in the course fee.

Digital Filmmaking: 10 a.m.-4 p.m. Aug. 5-15. Course fee: $900.

Students will learn the proper operation and use of digital arts equipment – including, but not limited to, video recorders, monitors, cameras, audio-visual equipment, computer-based digital editing equipment, sound and lighting. Students will develop and create a media project to share at the conclusion of the course. The course is designed for high school students. Materials are included.

For a complete list of academies and to register online, visit outreach.arts.uci.edu /summer-academies. Information: 949-824-8976 or artsoutreach@uci.edu.

– Provided by UCI's Claire Trevor School of the Arts

Irvine World News

Published: March 22, 2013 Updated: April 2, 2013 12:27 a.m.
Orange County Register

This Week in OCVarsity Arts

REGISTRATIONS

Summer Academies in Art for Teens at UCI's Claire Trevor School of the Arts Registration is now taking place for various Academies in Art being offered this summer at the Claire Trevor School of the Arts (CTSA) at UC Irvine. Classes in Digital Filmmaking, Drawing & Painting, Sculpture/Ceramics, and Photography will provide high school students the opportunity to spend part of their summer absorbed in intensives that support portfolio preparation, and prevent summer learning loss while fostering self-confidence, leadership and peer relations. Courses are rigorous with close, focused instruction in small classes. In addition to classes taught by current or former UC Irvine Anteaters who are professionals in their fields, students may take master classes with members of Claire Trevor School of the Arts faculty, and have the opportunity to learn tips for success in the arts. All courses are geared for high school students. Materials are included in the registration fees. Visit outreach.arts.uci.edu/summer-academies-art for more information and to register.

Published: March 29, 2013 Updated: April 2, 2013 12:27 a.m.
Orange County Register

This week in OCVarsity Arts

REGISTRATIONS

Summer Academies in Art for Teens at UCI's Claire Trevor School of the Arts Registration is now taking place for various Academies in Art being offered this summer at the Claire Trevor School of the Arts (CTSA) at UC Irvine. Classes in Digital Filmmaking, Drawing & Painting, Sculpture/Ceramics, and Photography will provide high school students the opportunity to spend part of their summer absorbed in intensives that support portfolio preparation, and prevent summer learning loss while fostering self-confidence, leadership and peer relations. Courses are rigorous with close, focused instruction in small classes. In addition to classes taught by current or former UC Irvine Anteaters who are professionals in their fields, students may take master classes with members of Claire Trevor School of the Arts faculty, and have the opportunity to learn tips for success in the arts. All courses are geared for high school students. Materials are included in the registration fees. Visit outreach.arts.uci.edu/summer-academies-art for more information and to register.

Published: April 19, 2013 Updated: 5:35 p.m.
Orange County Register

OC Varsity Arts events April 21-27

techniques, develop a portfolio, find personal artistic direction, and explore the individual process of creating art. The curriculum is developed and taught by UCI grad students and lab managers under the guidance of UCI faculty. Students will be assessed based on a "before and after" review of their individual portfolio. The academy consists of daily segments of discussion, studio time and technique. The program will conclude with a small exhibition of student work. Materials are included in the course fee. The class runs through July 6. Course fee: $1,000. Information: 949-824-8976.

July 8th

ART ACADEMY

Emerging Artists summer academy: Middle school students will have an opportunity to experience how art, dance, drama and music work together at UC Irvine's Claire Trevor School of the Arts' Emerging Artists Academy from July 8-19. The academy culminates in a public stage production. Classes are held Mondays through Fridays from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. The course fee is $850 and includes materials. Information: 949-824-8976 or outreach.arts.uci.edu/summer-academies.

RECREATION

Badminton Summer Camp: Join UCI Badminton Club Coach Daniel Commins and his collegiate staff for a day of badminton. Campers will learn the rules of singles, doubles and mixed events, as well as the fundamentals of racket grip, racket strokes and footwork. This camp is for both new students and those with some experience. All equipment is provided. The class is 9 a.m.-noon at ARC Main Gym, Court 3, 680 California Ave., Irvine. For ages 8-14. Admission: $125-$150. Information: 949-824-5346 and www.campusrec.uci.edu.

RECREATION

Cooking College: Students will learn to cook various types of meals in an environment that encourages discovery and creativity. The camp is designed to familiarize students with healthy foods while they experience what it feels like to create and taste delicious recipes that they prepare. This summer's new teen camp will allow older and experienced chefs to be even more creative. Ages 8-16. The class is

August 1st-31st

SCIENCE

Visitor Night at the UCI Observatory: Highlights include Saturn, M57, the Ring Nebula, open cluster M11 and M16, the Eagle Nebula and the double star Albireo. Dress warmly and bring flashlights. Amateur astronomers are encouraged to bring their own telescopes to share with visitors. The event is 8-10 p.m. at The Observatory at UC Irvine. Free, although a $5 donation per family is suggested. Information: physics.uci.edu.

August 1st-31st

THEATER

Plays: The New Swan Shakespeare Festival presents "King Lear" and "A Midsummer Night's Dream" at Gateway Commons next to Aldrich Park at UC Irvine. Admission: $20-$30. Information: 949-824-2787 and www.arts.uci.edu.

August 5th

ACTING

Summer acting and auditioning for high school students: Claire Trevor School of the Arts at UC Irvine has added an acting and auditioning intensive course to its summer academies in the arts. The course has been designed for high school students interested in obtaining university-level training in drama from one of the top 10 performing arts schools in the country. By the end, the young actors will have acquired new audition monologues that can be used for university and professional auditions. The fee for the course is $800 per student. Information: 949-824-8976 and outreach.arts.uci.edu/summer-academies.

WORKSHOP

Digital filmmaking: Students will learn the proper operation and use of digital filmmaking equipment including, but not limited to, video recorders, computer-based digital editing equipment, sound and lighting equipment and general use of the video facility. Through instruction, training and demonstration of digital filmmaking hardware and software, students will develop and create a media project. The class is 10 a.m.-4 p.m. Admission: $900. Information: 949-

EVENTS

er-j will ning City of brary calling 'mable h atre lay, s al thea-ining ation, le aracve-eatre

.m. to rough OO;
)

'na-ic July res sses, nber tu-cello, id en-perpplica-its are the

org.
in Art aire Arts aking
in Art mmer chool

making, Drawing & Painting, Sculpture/Ceramics, and Photography will provide high school students the opportunity to spend part of their summer absorbed in intensives that support portfolio preparation. All courses are geared for high school students. Materials are included in the registration fees. Scholarships and financial assistance are available. Visit outreach.arts.uci.edu for more information and to register.

Summer Academy in Dance at UCI's Claire Trevor School of the Arts Registration is ongoing for the Summer Academy in Dance being offered at the Claire Trevor School of the Arts at UC Irvine. The Ballet/Jazz/Modern/Hip-Hop Dance Intensive will provide students 12-19 the opportunity to spend part of their summer focusing on skill development. Scholarships and financial assistance are available. Visit outreach.arts.uci.edu for more information and to register.

To include your events, auditions, and deadlines in upcoming issues of Varsity Arts, upload information to events.ocregister.com and add the keyword VARSITY ARTS

All events must be entered online at least one week be-screen De-ing on now 12th grade, d Monday-24-July 19.

s will offer i the basic ed for mak-signs, and
s. Students sessions to art-making rse catalog aline at nore infor-ectordireccall (562)

each Play-h Theater n is for stull begin on our weeks.
m 1 p.m.-4 Friday and n acting,
. Students
ity to work California eater per-will culmiformances
gton Beach ster by call-information upon reigh School servatory

Each day, students will rotate through three classes taught by educational theater professionals. Training will include improvisation, collaborative ensemble work, monologue, character development, movement, and musical theatre performance. 8:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Monday through Friday, July 8-19. $400; second student $250. smhs.org

The Capistrano International Chamber Music Festival takes place July 26-Aug. 3, and features concerts, master classes, and a week-long chamber music intensive for students of violin, viola, cello, and piano, and we welcome pre-formed ensembles with prior experience. We are still accepting applications for K-12 students to participate, and the website is capochambermusic.org.

Summer Academies in Art for Teens at UCI's Claire Trevor School of the Arts Registration is now taking place for various Academies in Art being offered this summer at the Claire Trevor School of the Arts at UC Irvine. Classes in Digital Filmmaking, Drawing & Painting, Sculpture/Ceramics, and Photography will provide high school students the opportunity to spend part of their summer absorbed in intensives that support portfolio preparation, and prevent summer learning loss while fostering self-confidence and leadership. All courses are geared for high school students. Materials are included in the registration fees. Scholarships and financial assistance are available. Visit outreach.arts.uci.edu for more information and to register.

Summer Academy in Dance at UCI's Claire Trevor School of the Arts Registration is now taking place for the Summer Academy in Dance being offered at the Claire Trevor School of the Arts at UC Irvine. The Ballet/Jazz/Modern/Hip-Hop Dance Intensive will provide students 12-19 the opportunity to spend part of their summer focusing on skill development and preventing summer learning loss, while also fostering self-confidence, leadership and peer relations. Scholarships and financial assistance are available. Visit outreach.arts.uci.edu for more information and to register.

Do you have an upcoming high school arts event that you want to promote? To include your events, auditions, registrations and deadlines in upcoming issues of OCVarsity Arts for free, upload information to events.ocregister.com and add the keyword VARSITY ARTS. All events must be entered online at least one week before publication of the print edition.

july 8th

ART ACADEMY
Emerging Artists summer academy: Middle school students who want to find their calling in the arts can experience how art, dance, drama and music work together at UC Irvine's Claire Trevor School of the Arts' Emerging Artists Academy July 8-19. The academy culminates in a public stage production. Classes are 10 a.m.-4 p.m., Mondays through Fridays. The fee is $850 and includes materials. Information: 949-824-8976 or outreach.arts.ucl.edu/summer-academies

RECREATION
Badminton summer camp: Join UCI Badminton Club Coach Daniel Commins and his collegiate staff for a day of badminton. Campers ages 8 to 14 will learn the rules of singles, doubles and mixed events as well as the fundamentals of racquet grip, strokes formation: 949-824-5346 and campusrec.ucl.edu

Cooking college: Students will learn to cook various types of meals in an environment that encourages discovery and creativity. The camp is designed to familiarize students ages 8 to 16 with healthy foods while they experience how it feels to create and taste delicious recipes. This summer's new teen camp will allow older and experienced chefs to be even more creative with culinary creations. Campers are encouraged to bring their favorite aprons or they may borrow one from our supply. The class is from 9 a.m.-noon at ARC Kitchen and Classroom, 680 California Ave., Irvine. Admission: $150-$175. Information: 949-824-5346 and campusrec.ucl.edu

monday 15th

HEALTH Heart healthy diet: This formation: 949-824-5346 and campusrec.ucl.edu

ENGINEERING
FABCamp: The hands-on summer experience for incoming seventh- and eighth-grade students allows the class to learn from UCI engineers. Inspire imaginations with the opportunity to design, build and create projects from start to finish. The class session is 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Henry Samueli School of Engineering, 5 Engineering Hall, Irvine. 949-824-4659

saturday

SCIENCE
Visitor night & Observatory: Includes Saturday MS7, the Bios their own telescopes to share with visitors. The event is 8-10 p.m. at The Observatory at UC Irvine. Free admission. Information: physics.ucl.edu

august 5th

ACTING
Summer acting and auditioning for high school students: Claire Trevor School of the Arts at UC Irvine has added an acting and auditioning intensive course to its list of summer academies in the arts. The course has been designed for high school students

COURTESY OF ARTS OUTREACH

Emerging Artists workshops include improvisation, vocal instruction and audition techniques.

saturday 22nd

ARBORETUM
New volunteer orientation: The UCI Arboretum will be holding a new volunteer orientation. The orientation includes a brief tour of the arboretum and will cover all aspects of volunteering including many jobs for non-gardeners. No experience is required. Volunteers work in various sections of the garden such and help with the propagation nursery, herbarium, orchid collection and plant sales. The orientation is 10-11 a.m. at UCI Arboretum, south of the corner of Campus Drive and Jamboree Road on the UCI North Campus. Information: 949-824-5833.

the Claire Trevor School of the Arts' Emerging Artists Academy from July 8 to July 19. The academy culminates in a public stage production. Classes are held Mondays through Fridays from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. The course fee is $850 and includes materials. Information: 949-824-8976 or outreach.arts.ucl.edu/summer-academies

august 1st-31st

THEATER
Plays: The New Swan Shakespeare Festival presents "King Lear" and "A Midsummer Night's Dream" at Gateway Commons next to Aldrich Park. Admission: $20-$30. Information: 949-824-2787 and www.arts.ucl.edu

august 5th

ACTING
Summer acting and auditioning for high school students: Claire Trevor School of the Arts has added

july 8th-19th

ART ACADEMY
Emerging Artists summer academy: Middle school students who want to find their calling in the arts have an opportunity to experience how art, dance, drama and music work together at

monday 10th

HEALTH
Heart Failure: This class explains how to manage heart failure. Learn what failure is, what the signs and symptoms are and what to be aware of and when to call your doctor. Learn the lifestyle changes to manage your energy and increase your energy. Medications, diet, activities and resources are other topics to be discussed. The class is 2-3:30 p.m. at Grunigen Medical Library, 101 The City Drive South, Building 22A, 2nd floor classrooms, Orange. Free to UC Irvine Health patients, staff, volunteers and families; $20 for community members. Registration: 877-824-3627.

saturday 15th

ARBORETUM
June Gloom? No, June Bloom! The Arboretum features succulents, perennials and blooming bulbs at their plant sale from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at UCI Arboretum, south of the corner of Campus Drive and Jamboree Road on the UCI North Campus. Free. Information: 949-824-5833.

saturday 22nd

ARBORETUM
New Volunteer Orientation: The UCI arboretum will be holding a new volunteer orientation. The orientation will include a brief tour of the Arboretum and cover all aspects of volunteering including many jobs for non-gardeners. No experience is required. Volunteers work in various sections of the garden, the propagation nursery, herbarium, orchid collection and help at plant sales. The orientation is 10-11 a.m. at UCI Arboretum, south of the corner of Campus Drive and Jamboree Road on the UCI North Campus. Information: 949-824-5833.

Drama
Saturday Academy in Drama: The Saturday Academy in Drama is a way to get to know the Drama Department at the Claire Trevor School of the Arts. From acting and singing technique, to improvisation and audition tips, middle and high school students see all aspects of the department, culminating in a performance of "Spring Awakening." The first 30 registrants receive a free ticket to "Spring Awakening." Check-in is at 8:30 a.m.

august 1st-31st

THEATER
Plays: The New Swan Shakespeare Festival presents "King Lear" and "A Midsummer Night's Dream" at Gateway Commons. Admission: $20-$30. Information: 949-824-2787 and www.arts.ucl.edu

august 5th

ACTING
Summer acting and auditioning for high school students: The Claire Trevor School of the Arts has added an acting and auditioning intensive course to its list of summer academies in the arts. The course has been designed for high school students interested in obtaining university-level training in drama from one of the top 10 performing arts schools in the country. At the end of the intensive, the young actors will have acquired new audition monologues that can be used for university and professional auditions. The training culminates in a presentation of short scenes and monologues. The course fee is $800. Information: 949-824-8976 or outreach.arts.ucl.edu/summer-academies

The calendar is written by Kathleen Luppi. She can be reached at kluppi@ocregister.com

Saturday Academies

Summer Academies

Summer Academies

Reach In: Improv Revolution

Jordan High School Tours Digital Filmmaking Program

EMERGING ARTISTS

Creative Connections

UCI Symphony Orchestra Visits Santa Ana High School

